2nd Hand Uniform - We need to draw your attention to the following:

- All items are heavily discounted, even if they look like new. This is a way we can help all families afford branded uniform, which we know can be expensive.
- All items have been laundered but have since been stored so we would suggest washing before wearing.
- All items have been checked and we have only listed clothing which we think is an acceptable quality. Items will be listed as:
 - New: Item is brand new – may or may not have tags
 - Used - Very Good: item is in a nearly new condition. Very little wear.
 - Used – Good: item is in good used condition, some signs of wear. A small amount of fading/bobbling may be evident.
 - Used – Acceptable: item is in used condition. It may be faded/have signs of bobbling and may need a replacement button or small repairs to seams, but still usable.
- Some sizes are approximate, as different makers use different sizing guides. We have taken care to ensure they're listed as accurately as possible. Please note that the actual size of the garment will be listed in the description of the item.
- It is very difficult to identify the gender of some trousers and shirts. We have listed as we feel appropriate.
- We do not give refunds on 2nd hand uniform.
